Form 990, Part III, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

Bringing the Power of Entrepreneurship to Disadvantaged Individuals and Communities: Renaissance Entrepreneurship Center (Renaissance, www.rencenter.org) is a not-for-profit social impact organization working at the intersection of social, racial and economic justice. Our work demonstrates that through small business ownership, individuals who face systemic barriers to economic opportunity due to gender, sexual orientation, race, income level, immigration status, or former incarceration can achieve economic mobility, create better futures for themselves and their families, and play pivotal roles in building local economic prosperity.

Renaissance delivers comprehensive English and Spanish-language entrepreneurship training, access to capital, special programs for women, and ongoing support that directly addresses the challenges disadvantaged communities face as they strive to achieve economic mobility. Renaissance clients graduate with the technical and soft business skills, business acumen, and supportive networks that all entrepreneurs need - and deserve - to build assets and create better futures for themselves, their families and communities.

Annually, Renaissance delivers small business training and support services to more than 1,500 lower-income Bay Area individuals who, in turn, launch and grow more than 500 businesses, access over $1 million in capital, and create employment for as many as 750 local residents.

Our clients are: 89% low- to moderate-income; 75% women; 76% people of color; 32% immigrants, 12% LGBTQ and 9% people with disabilities.

Renaissance reaches deeply into some of the Bay Area's most under-resourced communities, delivering services through our four Centers: South of Market and Bayview Hunters Point in San Francisco, Richmond in Contra Costa County, and East Palo Alto in San Mateo County, as well as off-site services in Oakland, San Jose and East Contra Costa County. Our Centers not only remove geographic barriers to participation, they also build community and foster collaboration among business owners. Each center is designed to be responsive to community needs, offering accessible and affordable skills training, resources, and networks that help residents launch and grow sustainable businesses.

Our impact: Renaissance's work demonstrates that through customized small business training and support, individuals who face systemic barriers to economic opportunity can change the trajectory of lives, achieve economic mobility, and play pivotal roles in building local economy prosperity.

Our impact is demonstrated by our clients' success. According to our 2018 Entrepreneur Tracker evaluation, an independent survey conducted by the Aspen Institute:

68% of pre-business clients launched successfully in just one year

94% who came to Renaissance in business, stayed in business

68% of owners met their income goals and household incomes

increased by 28%

45% of businesses employed others; on average each business supports three jobs with an average employee hourly wage of $25.5/hour.

94% of clients said Renaissance services completely or mostly met their expectations.

The Bay Area reflects among the most extreme disparities of wealth in the country, and the risk of falling through the cracks is worsening by the day for people of color, women, individuals with lower-income, immigrants and the formerly incarcerated. Through small business ownership, our clients are breaking that cycle by building better futures for themselves, their families and communities. Since our launch in 1985, Renaissance has served over 29,000 individuals who have started and grown over 12,500 businesses, created more than 18,750 jobs, built financial assets, and contributed to local economic vitality.

Renaissance owns and/or manages over 47,000 square feet of commercial real estate that hosts over 70 thriving small businesses and community-serving organizations. The building Renaissance owns in South of Market San Francisco was appraised in 2012 at $5.8 million.
